01. (a) State two (02) personal laws.

(b) State two (02) sources of law in Sri Lanka.

(c) State two (02) matters in respect of which the Supreme Court exercises its jurisdiction.

(d) State two (02) methods by which an offer lapses / terminates.

(e) State two (02) powers of the Commissioner of labour in respect of settlement of industrial disputes.

(02 marks each, Total 10 marks)

02. “An agreement between the parties is an essential element of a contract, but every such agreement does not form a valid contract”.

Do you agree with this statement?

Justify your answer with reference to the Law of Contract. (10 marks)
03. "Saman, a keen collector of old cars has seen an advertisement for an auction of old cars in a weekend newspaper. He travelled to Colombo from Badulla to attend the auction in order to bid for the model mentioned in the list of vehicles to be auctioned. However, when Saman arrived at the auction site, he found a notice outside stating that the auction has been cancelled".

Saman contemplates legal action against the auctioneer. In the context of law of contract, advise Saman whether he can succeed in an action against the auctioneer. Give reasons for your answer. (10 marks)

04. (a) What is “creation of agency by necessity”? (04 marks)

(b) What are the conditions to be satisfied for creation of agency by necessity? (03 marks)

(c) State three(03) duties of an Agent. (03 marks)

(Total 10 marks)

05. (a) State four(04) types of Negotiable Instruments. (04 marks)

(b) Explain the characteristics of Negotiable Instruments. (06 marks)

(Total 10 marks)

06. Discuss the provisions in relation to the “working hours and welfare facilities of workers” under the Shop and Office Employees Act. (10 marks)